

The list of questions on practical skills in the discipline "Neurology" for students of the Faculty of Dentistry

1. Study of the neurological status:

- functions of the cranial nerves
- sensitivity
- motor functions
- reflexes
- meningeal symptoms
- functions of the autonomic nervous system
- higher cortical functions
- research of the coordination sphere

2. Interpretation of the results of additional research methods:

- analysis of cerebrospinal fluid (cerebrospinal fluid)
- neurosonography (in children 1 year of age)
- echoencephalography
- craniography
- spondylography
- angiography
- computed and magnetic resonance imaging
- electroencephalography
- ultrasound examination of blood vessels (UDS, UZDG, TKDG)

3. Diagnostics and provision of emergency medical care in case of emergency:

- cerebral coma
- strokes
- vegetative crises
- convulsive syndrome and status epilepticus
- cerebral edema
- myasthenic crisis
- bulbar syndrome